ATHENS COUNTY
BOARD OF ELECTIONS

ORDINANCE NO. 6-24-14 (A)

ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING ALL ACTION NECESSARY TO EFFECT AN OPT-OUT ELECTRIC AGGREGATION PROGRAM PURSUANT TO SECTION 4928.20 OF THE REVISED CODE , AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, the Ohio Legislature has enacted electric deregulation legislation ("Am. Sub. S. B. No. 3") which authorizes the legislative authorities of municipal corporations, townships, and counties to aggregate the retail electric loads located in the respective jurisdictions and to enter into Service Agreements to facilitate for those loads the purchase and sale of electricity; and

WHEREAS, Electric Aggregation provides an opportunity for electric consumers collectively to realize electric savings, lower costs electric supplies, and other benefits that the consumers may not otherwise be able to realize individually; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Jacksonville, Ohio desires to submit an Ordinance to the Board of Elections to submit to the electors of the Village the question to whether the Village should create an Electric Aggregation program in accordance with Ohio Revised Code Sec. 4928.20; and

WHEREAS, Village Council believes this opportunity will provide for cost savings to the residents of the Village, and desires to enact such legislation and certify same to the Athens County Board of Elections to present this issue to the voters for the General Election to be held on November 4th, 2014.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE VILLAGE OF JACKSONVILE, ATHENS COUNTY, OHIO AS FOLLOWS:

1. Village Council finds and determines that to facilitate competitive retail electric service to promote electric savings, lower cost electric supplies, and other benefits, it is in the best interests of the Village and certain electric consumers within the jurisdiction of the Village to establish an opt-out Electric Aggregation program in the Village pursuant to Section 4928.20, Revised Code. Provided that this Ordinance and the Electric Aggregation program is approved by the electors of the Village in accordance with this Ordinance, the Village is hereby authorized to take all actions necessary to affect an Electric Aggregation program pursuant to Section 4928.20, Revised Code. The Village may exercise this authority jointly with other entities to the full extent permitted by the law, and for such purposes. Actions necessary to affect the Electric Aggregation program include determining and entering into service agreement(s) with electric suppliers to facilitate the sale and purchase of all electric commodity and services to serve the enrolled consumers. The Village shall be authorized by the electors to be the only entity authorized to act for and on behalf of the enrolled electric consumers to determine and select the electric supplier(s) to provide the commodity and all other services for the Electric Aggregation program and the enrolled consumers;

2. The Electric Aggregation program shall not apply to persons meeting any of the following criteria, as more specifically described in Section 4928.20(H)(1-5) of the Ohio Revised Code: (i) a customer that has opted out of the aggregation, (ii) a customer in contract with a certified electric services company, (iii) a customer that has a special contract with an electric distribution utility, or (iv) a customer that is not located within the governmental aggregator's governmental boundaries, (v) subject to division (C) of section 4928.21 of the Revised Code, a customer who appears on the "do not aggregate" list maintained under this section.
3. That this Council hereby authorizes and directs the Athens County Board of Elections to submit to the electors of the Village of Jacksonville in an election to be held at the usual places of voting of said Village on the 4th day of November, 2014, the following question:

To facilitate competitive retail electric service to promote electric savings, lower cost electric supplies, and other benefits, shall the Village of Jacksonville have the authority to aggregate retail electric loads located in the Village of Jacksonville and enter into service agreements for the sale and purchase of electric commodity and other services, such aggregation to occur automatically, except where any person elects to opt-out?

FOR, the Village of Jacksonville to facilitate competitive retail electric service to promote electric savings and other benefits by acting as an aggregator.

NOT FOR, the Village of Jacksonville to facilitate competitive retail electric service to promote electric savings and other benefits by acting as an aggregator.

4. That the Village Solicitor is authorized and directed to file a copy of this Ordinance with the Athens County Board of Elections. The Election Aggregation program shall program shall not take effect unless approved by a majority of the electors voting upon the proposed ballot question at the election held in accordance with this Ordinance and Section 4928.20 of the Ohio Revised Code. Upon approval, the Electric Aggregation shall take effect at the earliest permissible point in time and continue thereafter in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 4928.20 of the Ohio Revised Code.

5. That the Athens County Board of Elections shall cause an appropriate notice to be given of the election to be held November 4, 2014 on the foregoing proposal and otherwise to provide for such election in the manner provided by the general laws of the State of Ohio.
6. Upon approval by a majority of the electors voting at the election provided for by this Ordinance, the Village of Jacksonville shall develop and adopt a plan of operations and governance for the Electric Aggregation Program. Consumers enrolled in the Electric Aggregation program shall be their electric requirements and other services in accordance with supply agreement(s) determined and arranged by the Village, as opportunities become available to provide benefits on behalf of the electric consumers enrolled in the Electric Aggregation program and the consumers located within the jurisdiction of the Village. The Village shall be authorized by the electors to be the only entity authorized to act for and on behalf of the electric consumers that have enrolled in the Electric Aggregation program to determine and select the electric supplier(s) to provide the commodity and all other services for the Electric Aggregation program and the enrolled consumers. Before adopting such a Plan, at least two public hearings on the Plan shall be held. Before the first hearing, notice of the first hearing shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the Village. The notice shall summarize the Plan and state the date, time, and location of each hearing.
7. The adopted Plan shall not aggregate any retail load within the Village, unless the person whose retail electric load is to be so aggregated is notified in advance that the person will be enrolled automatically in the Electric Aggregation program and shall remain so enrolled, unless the person affirmatively elects not to be so enrolled by a stated procedure. The disclosure shall state the rates, charges, and other terms and conditions of the enrollment. Once enrolled the consumer may only opt-out of the Electric Aggregation program every two years without paying a switching fee. Any such person that opts-out of the Electric Aggregation program shall default to the electric company providing distribution service for the person's retail electric load, until the person chooses an alternative supplier.
